First Conference Game of the Season an Easy One For Blue and Grey

In a rough, slow and uninteresting game the E. I. quintet downed the S. N. U. five Wednesday night, Dec. 22.

The referee was a little loose on calling fouls, and had he been more stringent in this calling, the game would probably have been much faster.

Capt. Anderson was the star for E. I. making 18 out of the 28 points scored by his team. Warner, the lanky center for the visitors was their best man, registering 8 of his team's 15 points.

Steve Turner made his debut into fast company and played like an old timer.

The game was close the first half, the score being 11-8 in favor of the blue and grey when that period ended. The E. I. speeded up the second half and chalked up 17 points, while the red and white team were finding it hard to make four of those coveted points.

The blue and gray are coming fast and should win the game with Illinois Wesleyan at Bloomington on January 7.

The E. I. squad of basketballers easily defeated the Charleston high school five last Tuesday in the high school gym.

This is the second time this season that the E. I. has defeated the C. H. S. team. All the members of the E. I. squad that were in town, got a chance to show their skill and they showed up well on a foreign floor. Anderson and Endsley starred for the Can't you buy some warmer clothes?

NEW YEAR'S DANCE

One of the largest social events of the season occurred last Thursday night in Richter Hall. The Misses Pauline Shortess, Mary Sarchet, Mae Snyder, Georgia Sinsabaugh and Sarah Johnson gave a dance in the hall on that date. Seventy-five couples from Mattoon and Charleston were in attendance. Patronesses were Mrs. J. A. Shortess, Mrs. S. A. Hawk, Mrs. Harry Sinsabaugh, Mrs. Charles Snyder, and Mrs. Hugh Johnson. Everybody sure had an enjoyable time.

MISS NEWELL'S FATHER DEAD
Miss Newell received news of the death of her father at Dora, Mich., a few days before the holidays. She immediately left for Dora. Miss Ragan and her student teachers took charge of her classes.

CAPT. SCHARER TO LEAD E. I.

Was Elected at Meeting to Head the 1916 Foot Ball Team—Outlook Good

An important meeting of the Athletic Association was held in Mr. Thomas' room the day before school closed. Much business was taken up.

First came the election of officers. Fred Endsley was elected president of the Association over Harry Willson and Frank Harris. Stephen Turner was elected vice president over several other candidates. Lyman Ritter and Otto Schmaelzle were elected secretary and treasurer unanimously.

Foot ball monograms were issued to the members of the foot ball team who played in at least three college games. Those who received the coveted E. I.'s were Rich, Scharer, Hutton, Cooper, Anderson, Crowe, Leach, Tabbutt, Hampton, Fitch, Endsley, Ritter, Peck, Wilson and Markle.

Scharer was elected captain of the foot ball team for next year. Only members of the team this year were allowed to vote and they did it by ballot.

Plans for an entertainment for the benefit of the association were talked over and a committee was appointed to make plans for this. Any person who has any suggestions to make should hand them to any member of this committee. The idea of the entertainment is for different shows to be given in the building some time about the close of the first semester.

The committee appointed is as follows: Mr. Lantz, chairman; Ivan Goble, Earl Anderson, Herman Cooper, Martin Scharer.

The association is for the girls and they should attend these meetings for they interest them as much as the interest the boys.

Everybody boost the Athletic Association and make it a success in a financial way as well as in other ways.

FIRST TRIP FOR TEAM

The E. I. basket ball team will leave Friday for a two days' trip. They meet Illinois Wesleyan at Bloomington Friday night and Illinois College at Jacksonville on Saturday night. Wesleyan has one of the best teams in her history, but the E. I. hope to defeat them. Illinois College is an unknown quantity, but the blue also hope to triumph over them.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

It is time to appear a little late with an editorial on New Year's Resolutions, a few suggestions of that sort might be very appropriate. Let's begin the new year
by doing all we can to improve ourselves. For one thing, there is another month in this semester,
and if anyone is doubtful whether they will pass, now, if ever, is the time to turn over a new leaf
and study before it is too late.

None of us can help what is past but we can all do something to improve the future. Below is a list of appropriate new year resolutions. Sign this and keep the resolutions and you will always be happy.

I hereby resolve that I will do
the following things for the coming year:

That I will study more and in
that way improve my grades.

That I will do somebody a good turn every day.

That I will get out of my shell
and mix with other people.

That I will add to my list of friends those people that count.

That I will acquire some "school spirit" and help the teams by rooting at the games and in any other way in my power.

That I will subscribe for the News and will support it in any other way I can.

That I will keep the above resolutions.

MILLIKIN STAR QUITS
It is reported that Arthur Acker star forward on Millikin's basket ball team, will leave school at the end of the present term, in order that he may teach manual training in Florida. This will help the E. P's. chance for victory with Millikin, as we do not play our old rivals from Decatur until February.

Lloyd Goble, '00 a member of the first graduating class at this school, and family visited relatives in this city during vacation. The graduating class of 1900 had four members.

ALUMNI NOTES

By Bruce Corrao, '12

Harry Huber, '09, who is teaching and doing research work in the school of Medicine in the University of Chicago, spent the holidays at his home near Mattoon. He was in Charleston on Thursday calling on old friends.

Henry Belting, '09, instructor in Agriculture at the State Normal school at Emporia, Kans., spent the holidays in this city with his parents, and in Bloomington, Ind., with his wife's parents. He returned to Emporia Saturday.

There are about fifty alumnae with homes in and near Charleston who spend their Christmas vacation here. Why not, have a dinner or some sort of get together party where old times can be talked over, old acquaintances renewed, and allegiance to our alma mater strengthened.

At the Home Coming last fall a number of alumnae were discussing the difficulty which many graduates experience when they enter Universities. It was suggested that an advisory committee of the faculty for students who, at the end of their sophomore year, know definitely that they shall enter some University, might be of no little assistance in helping them to arrange their course to fulfill entrance requirements. It is probable that this matter will be taken up at the annual meeting of alumnae in June. Any graduates who have suggestions to offer should be ready with them at that time.

WHERE THEY SPENT XMAS.

A good many of the faculty spent their vacation out of town with relatives and friends. Although we do not have them all, we have found out where many of them spent the holiday.

Miss Weller spent Christmas with her brother in Chicago.

Miss Dott spent vacation with friends and relatives in Sioux City, Iowa.

Miss Estabrook and Miss Bennett spent Christmas in Boston.

Miss Geiger returned to her home town in Oshkosh, Wis., for Christmas.

Miss Booth spent the holidays with her aunt in Beloit, Wis.

Mr. Taylor spent Xmas with relatives at his home in Robinson.

Miss Morse ate Christmas turkey with friends in Chicago.

Miss Ragan and Miss Coffman spent vacation with friends in Greencastle, Ind.

Most all of the rest of the faculty spent vacation in this city.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING

The regular weekly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held in the music room on the Tuesday night before school closed. Regular business was taken up and the Rev. Mr. Casely, pastor of the First Methodist church addressed the meeting.

Julian Anderson, '15, who is a sophomore in Beloit College, Beloit, Wis., spent the holidays with his parents.

ALVA BOWSER'S

FATHER IS KILLED

In a railroad accident which occurred December 24, on the Clover Leaf railroad near Veedersburg, Ind., J. B. Bowser, father of Alva Bowser, a member of the class of 1917, was killed. C. Bennet, father of Miss Ethel Bennet, a member of the class of 1919, was injured, but not seriously. Alva and his mother were in Bloomington, Ill., when the news of the accident came and were compelled to return, spending their Christmas in sorrow. Miss Ethel Bennet was spending her vacation in Tennessee, but the accident was not of sufficient seriousness to necessitate her return.

Besides these men three others were killed and a large number injured. The accident was caused by a collision between a freight and a passenger train. Mr. Bowser was engineer on the freight while Mr. Bennet was the pilot of the passenger.

XMAS ENTERTAINMENT

The Christmas entertainment was held in the assembly room the Tuesday before vacation. The following program was given:

Singing of "Silent Night" by the model school pupils.

Reading of the Xmas story by Mr. Lord.

Pantomime showing the different phases of the birth of Christ. The following is the cast:

Joseph—Herman Cooper.
Mary—Mary Angela Edwards.
Angle—Marie Hartmann.
Wise Men, Earl Anderson, Hugh Adams and Benton Bunn.
Shepherds, Weger Allison, Lyman Ritter, Arthur Chapman, Forrest Kelly and Robert Allen.
Attendants, Roe Neal, Trevor Serviss and Truman May.

STANLEY CROWE IMPROVING

That Stanley Crowe showed a decided change for the better was the report today. His temperature has gone down until it is now almost normal. Stanley has had a hard time the last eight weeks and everyone is surely glad of the improvement.

Frieland Hill has quit school.

Elmer Scott has quit school until next semester.

Jim Ford spent vacation with his parents in Syracuse, N. Y.

Georgia Sinsabaugh spent vacation with friends in Chicago.

Mary Peters visited her sister Ruth the day before vacation.

Mr. Lord was confined to his home with la grippe last week.

Two students can rent a nice double room by calling at 1102 South 8th Street.

Henry Belting, a former member of the school, visited relatives in this city over vacation.

Mary Elizabeth Cone and Dorothy Fox played Liszt's Second Hungarian Rhapsody at chapel Thursday. The students sure enjoyed the music. This piece is a favorite with the students.
